Rabbi Gold's Parsha Corner

In Parshas Pinchas there is a mitzvah to bring the korban tamid, the regular daily sacrifice, in the morning and again in the afternoon. The Torah describes the laws that apply to the korban tamid and then adds the curious remark "like the one made at Har Sinai." What should be learned from the korban brought during the dedication of the mishkan at Har Sinai?

When something is done day in and day out, as wonderful and exciting as it may be, it eventually becomes something that we do by rote, automatic and without thought. As long as the Beis Hamikdash and the Mishkan were still standing, the korban tamid was brought day in and day out, and there was a risk of it becoming stale. Therefore, the Torah reminds us to bring the sacrifice as if we were still at Har Sinai, where everything was all still new and exciting. We should all reach for that inspiration with our tefillos and IYH with the korbanos that we will be zoche to bring with the rededication of the Beis Hamikdash that we long for daily.

NEWS AROUND CAMP SHALOM

What an amazing week in Rishon as we danced, played, created, cooked, and had fun with our friends. Our theme day was a blast as we told jokes and played silly games. We had so much fun making smoothies, and hot pretzels in fun with food . Swimming was awesome and so was dance. Can't wait for more fun next week! Stay tuned. Wishing everyone a good shabbos!!!

This week began with fruity fun for the Sheini and Shlishi Girls . The girls were able to cool off with fruit smoothies in fun with food, created bubbles in messy masterpieces, and flew airplanes and hovercrafts in science. On theme day this week, the girls competed in a knock knock joke off competition to find the funniest joke. They also played Punchline Bingo and everyone won Laffy Taffy, with jokes on them as a prize! Ending the week with a dance party was an excellent way to celebrate Shabbos together! Looking forward to more adventures next week!

Nosim had another active week! We skated, bowled, scavenged and hiked our way around New Jersey and New York! The highlight of the week was joining other camps at the Rockland Boulders game on Thursday where they had a camp cheer off and the group danced with the crowd to "Cotton Eyed Joe" and "YMCA". We can't wait for next week's adventures!

What a way to close out the first half! The Sheini Boys and Yosef loved our side-splitting joke day and had a blast sharing their funniest knock-knock jokes in a comedy battle for the ages. We also enjoyed special activities with our lifeguards when swimming got rained out. The amazing lifeguards organized a Javelin throwing competition using pool noodles which was so exciting! Finally, lunch was as fun as ever full of competitions to name fruits, veggies, and Marvel superheroes. Our week was definitely packed with fun!

He got to be a כהן. He got to do special work in the בית המקדש.

Moshe is the leader and יהושע is becoming the new leader.

Another opinion is that it is from the קרבנות.) שחרית is instead of the שחר של קרבן תמיד. מעריב is instead of the extra parts of the קרבנות that were burned overnight on the מזבח. מוסף is instead of the extra קרבנות brought on each holiday.
